

Sentir Aromatherapy

Aromatherapy Products and Services

Certified Aromatherapist and Fragrance Designer Frances LaRocca of Sentir Aromatherapy, specializes in combining the healing properties with the aesthetic attributes of essential oils. Its many benefits include restoring or enhancing health and beauty. Custom blending is the most sophisticated part of this practice. Choose from over 130 essential and perfume oils. Together, we'll create your signature scent. We offer the complete line of Sentir Basics, therapeutic and personal care products, at our aroma bar. Compare the experience of traditional perfumes and products with natural aromatherapy products and you will immediately appreciate the difference.
